From the backyard to the Table

"From the backyard to the Table" and you are the main actor!

On a beautiful hill full of secular olive trees that overlooking the incredible and deep blue sea of Ostuni, you will have a unique experience from the picking of raw materials to the preparation of typical and tasty plates . It's already known the worth of a kitchen that prefers natural and km 0 ingredients guaranteed from the organic producer in their authenticity .

Background of this experience will be a typical tavern, where, helping by a "special granny", you'll learn all the tricks to prepare some typical plates until your deserved tasting of all the stuff you created!

Program:

Arrive at the meeting point and move to one of the backyard a km 0

Pick up of raw materials for the lunch/dinner

Move to the tavern and preparation of the plates ( in this step you collaborate actively with the granny during the preparation of the different meals..for example you'll learn how to do homemade italian pasta!)

Cost of person: €35

Possibility to have a transfer if you ask.
